1. A military training center covering about 40 square kilometers is located at Oremov Laz in central Slovakia in the wooded and hilly area between Zvolen, Lucenec and Modry Kamen (Q49/C80). The area is guarded and posted as a "military area". It is used as a training center for all types of Slovak units. Since October 1950 reservists of military classes 1916 to 1926 have been trained in this area in four-week courses.
2. Troops are brought by train to the area and equipped at the supply depots located at Pliesovce and Sasa (Q49/C72). A hospital is also located either at Pliesovce or Sasa. At the end of 1950 an infantry unit of about 600 men was encamped about 10 km south of Pliesovce, an engineering unit east of the infantry unit, and beyond it to the east an artillery unit [redacted] [redacted] consisting of three batteries with a total of about 400 men and equipped with 122-mm howitzers.* Also encamped at the center was a tank unit equipped with T-34 tanks, a motor transportation battalion, a second infantry unit and headquarters units of the training center.
3. Personnel attached to the Oremov Laz Military Training Center from October to December 1950 included the following:
  - a. CO of the Center Major General Janda, about 45 years old, Czech.
  - b. Chief of Staff of the Center Staff Captain Glejzar, about 44 years old, Slovak, non-Communist.
  - c. CO in charge of 122-mm howitzers Major Adamek, about 40 years old, Slovak, Communist.
  - d. CO of artillery unit Staff Captain Grajcar.
